

Swinging double rope

She was born in Munich in 1992. After she had moved with her family to Würzburg, she started to do gymnastics. For 8 years she visited a circus camp during summer where she discovered her passion and love for artistry and performing on stage. Without knowing it, it was during these summer in the circus, that she lay the foundation of her career. After 5 years of education, she successfully graduated in Berlin as official artist. Since 2012, she works as freelancer swinging the double rope.
