

Dancer (Popping, Robot Dance)

She first discovered Hip-Hop at the age of 17, in her home country of France. She learned about the different elements of the culture and started training in Locking, Breaking, House and Choreography, but found her natural strength to have always been in Popping.

Soon after her graduation, she moved to Los Angeles where she fell in love with the dance scene and started training more than ever.

She won Hip Hop International Las Vegas in 2009, Bboy Summit 2011, Step Ya Game Up New York 2012 and was a finalist at Freestyle Session 2010.

By then, her intention was to start a professional dance career and take her talents to the next level.
